

Continuous training for SBP Banking Supervisors

Executive and Technical Staff of the Banking Supervision Directorate of the Superintendency of Banks of Panama recently participated in the “Role and Efficacy of the Banking Supervisor” training program.

The training aimed to strengthen the banking supervisor’s role within the institution’s strategy, as an administrator focused on optimum and positive results.

The course’s agenda included subjects related to organizational strategy, productivity, leadership, administrative role and how to lead teams.

The SBP constantly trains its staff through various programs, so as to adequately respond to the requirements of the banking and trust sector.
