

SBP will adjourn attention to the public the first of July

The Superintendency of Banks of Panama (SBP) will adjourn its public attention schedule on Wednesday July 1st, date when the new President of the Republic will take office.

Pursuant to what Article 46 of the Labor Code stipulates, the day of inauguration of the President elect of the Republic of Panama is deemed a day of mandatory rest, a national holiday.

On the other hand, the banking entities will be ruled by the schedule that each one of them adopts, heeding what was stipulated in S.B.P. Resolution No. 124-2006 of December 4, 2006 regarding the Banking Calendar.
