SBP in EXPOCOMER 2009

The Superintendency of Banks of Panama (SBP) was present with a Stand in the business exhibition Expocomer 2009, an event organized by the Chamber of Commerce and Industries of Panama in the Atlapa Convention Center.

For the VI consecutive year, the SBP participated in such an important world showcase, where it gave visitors information about the banking industry and this regulatory entity.

Novel subjects such as the Banking Customer Attention Service, information regarding the Banking Center, the importance of saving, Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing were featured through documentaries and multimedia.

The participation of the SBP in the Republic of Panama's pavilion consolidates its firm purpose of fostering the auspicious conditions for developing Panama as a sound and safe Banking Center.

The Superintendent of Banks, Eng. Olegario Barrelier, with the company of his work team, inaugurated the Stand.
