FERNANDO SUCRE MÍGUEZ
Member of the Board of Directors
Superintendency of Banks of Panama

Mr. Fernando Sucre Míguez holds a degree in Law and Political Science from the University of Panama. He subsequently attended the Program of Instruction for Lawyers at Harvard Law School, Harvard University (2001).

He currently serves as a director of the Superintendency of Insurance and Reinsurance of Panama and as a director of the Pro National Library Foundation. He has more than 20 years of experience in the local financial and banking sector.

He was the founder and a partner of the law firm Sucre, Briceño & Co. In the public sector, he served as Director of Legal Counsel at the Ministry of Government and Justice (1991 and 1999). In 2001, he was appointed Acting Vice Minister of Government and Justice. In 2002, the Executive Branch certified his eligibility to serve as a Justice of the Supreme Court of Justice.

Mr. Sucre has been recognized by the prestigious publication Chambers & Partners as a leading lawyer in Banking and Finance Law. He is a Permanent Observer of the Group of 100, Center for Innovation, Development and Legal Research, sponsored by the Spanish law firm Garrigues and the Monterrey Institute of Technology.

By Resolution No. JD-007 of March 21, 2024, issued by the Superintendency of Insurance and Reinsurance of Panama, he was appointed as a cross-appointed member of the Board of Directors of the Superintendency of Banks of Panama for a two-year term, effective March 23, 2024.