

Alexis Oriel Tejada Lombardo
Director of Administration

Mr. Tejada Lombardo holds a Bachelor of Arts in Accounting and Auditing from Columbus University. He also holds diplomas in the Management of State Budgets for the Acquisition of Works, Goods, and Services in Public Management from Universidad de Panamá; Public Management with an emphasis in Public Procurement from Universidad Nacional; and Amendment of the Public Procurement Regime from Universidad Latina.

He gained professional experience in the public sector while performing in different positions within state institutions, including the Ministry of Health.

In addition to his experience and academic knowledge, Mr. Tejada has attended several congresses, courses, and seminars that have provided significant value to his skills in administration and finance, including the International Congress of the Government Accounts Court; the Seminar on Social and Fiscal Responsibility Laws; seminars on Unequal Negotiations and Conflict Resolution, Interpersonal Communications, Coaching & Mentoring, Situational Leadership, Leadership & Coaching, Teamwork, Achievement-oriented Leadership, Business Recovery, Objective Definition, the Impact on Budgetary Execution and Control of the Acquisition of Goods and Services, Amendments and Additions to Public Procurement and Jurisprudence, and a seminar on the Jurisprudence of Law 22 on Public Procurement.