

Michelle Arango C.
Secretary General

Ms. Arango holds a bachelor's degree in Law and Political Science (2007) and a master's degree in Banking Law, with Cum Laude honors (2014), and is an alumna from Universidad Católica Santa María La Antigua (USMA). She also holds a Diploma in Human Resources Management (2011).

During her career, she has specialized in legal consulting in banking and regulatory matters for more than ten years.

Ms. Arango also focused her private practice in the areas of Corporate and Civil Law, which has added extensive experience in corporate, intellectual property, and real estate and has advised companies in the service sector, as well as financial entities.

In the public sector, she held the position of Legal Director in Caja de Ahorros.

Before Ms. Arango was appointed Secretary General, she served as Advisor to the Superintendent of Banks.