CIRCULAR No. 05-2003

Mr. General Manager
In Your Office.

Dear Manager, Sir:

Enclosed we remit, for your information, the route of the "Carnival Panama Centennial 2003" for the four days of duration of the celebration.

On this particular, the Superintendency of Banks will have no objection to authorize the temporary closing or modification of the hours of attention to the public of those banking establishments that could result affected by the Carnival, once said authorization has been requested through the corresponding channels.

The above is applied to those branches located both in the capital city and in the country side.

Yours truly,

Delia Cárdenas
Superintendent
