

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
THE SUPERINTENDENT OF BANKS
ANNOUNCES:

The Superintendency of Banks deems it necessary to inform the public about the circulation of at least one document issued by an alleged company called 'SOLUCIONES PANAMÁ,' which is offering loans and is also using the logo of the Superintendency of Banks on its letterhead.

We hereby inform the public that this alleged company IS NOT a bank regulated or supervised by the Superintendency, as it does not hold a Banking License to engage in banking business in or from the Republic of Panama or to have a Representative Office in our country, as required by the Banking Law.

SOLUCIONES PANAMÁ is not authorized by the Superintendency to use the institution's logo, as mandated by Law 15, dated 8th August 1994, which approves the Copyright and Related Rights Law, regulated by Executive Decree 261, dated 3rd October 1995. Unauthorized use of the Institutional Logo will be subject to corresponding civil, criminal, and administrative sanctions.

The Superintendency of Banks of Panama finds it prudent to warn the public to thoroughly inform themselves before entering contractual relationships with companies offering loans. Therefore, we recommend ensuring that these companies are duly authorized and licensed by the relevant Panamanian authorities to conduct the activity they are promoting, to protect your wealth.

Given in Panama City this eighteenth (18th) day of March, two thousand and nineteen (2019).
