

Tuesday, August 21, 2018

SBP Participated in the Launch of Banistmo, S.A.'s Financial Education Program

With the topic “What does the SBP think about the country’s financial and credit situation? Superintendent of Banks Ricardo Fernandez participated as a panelist in the Forum on “How does financial stress impact company productivity,” held by Banistmo, S.A. during the launching of its Financial Education Program.

The discussion, led by Banistmo, S.A. Chairwoman Aimee Sentmat de Grimaldo, had the participation of other panelists: Psychologist Ana Maria Florez and Hector Cotes, former Chairman of the Panamanian Association of Business Executives (APEDE, for its acronym in Spanish).

The discussion panel addressed customers, employees and strategic partners of Banistmo, S.A. that will participate in this project.